

A Traditional African Xylophone Performance

with Master Tijan Dorwana
Traditional xylophone (gyl) artist from Ghana

Wednesday, October 23, 1:30-3:00 p.m.
Pitman Recital Hall

One of the most renowned gyl artists alive today, Master Tijan Dorwana, will be performing traditional Ghanaian music at the Pitman Recital Hall. Intertwining stories of his homeland with traditional and original songs, Master Tijan's performance gives a glimpse into the history and culture of Northern Ghana. Don't miss this unique opportunity to see, hear, and learn about the traditional Ghanaian gyl from one of the great masters.